this is because every time you make a payment over the minimum amount due, more of your payment is applied toward the principal balance.

by stress or anxiety, though of course that very often makes it worse. cooking also degrades the perfection of live enzymes and nutrients therefore.