repeated infarction of joints, bones, and growth plates leads to aseptic necrosis, especially in weightbearing areas such as the femur.

A thorough dental prophylaxis should be performed in two cases of radiation-induced bone injury due to xerostomia.

"Prior to that fight, no one had ever forced Tyson to take a step back - except for British champion Frank Bruno one time.

In Denmark, festival goers have already tried out a payment system using an electronic bracelet.

Commodity and futures contracts are based on what's termed "forward" contracts.

The oil company has operated in Singapore, Asia's biggest oil-trading hub, since 1964 and has 640 employees there, according to BP's website.